

...ABORTION REMAINS LEGAL IN OKLAHOMA.

Your church did not support the abolition of abortion, and it should have.

Your church is guilty.

A wild, unfair claim? Here's why we say it.

During the 2018 campaign for the Republican nomination to the office of Governor of Oklahoma, one candidate came forward to pledge that he would abolish abortion once elected. Dan Fisher openly proclaimed during his campaign speeches the sin of the state of Oklahoma, the wickedness of abortion, and the necessity of defying the tyranny of the Supreme Court, whose opinions have deceived the citizens of Oklahoma that child sacrifice must be permitted within our land.

Fisher promised that, if elected, he would:

- Call an emergency session of the Oklahoma legislature,
- Demand that they pass and deliver to him a bill of TOTAL and IMMEDIATE abolition of abortion (since 75% of Oklahoma legislators claim to be pro-life),
- Sign that bill into law immediately, and
- Instruct all state agencies to ignore and defy any challenges from the federal government, including the Supreme Court.

Oklahoma could have been the first ABORTION-FREE state.

Instead, you did nothing of substance.

--Fisher's campaign was outspent around 14-to-1 by each of the fatally compromised, self-interested candidates who finished in the top three of the GOP primary.

--Relatively few volunteers stepped forward despite wide-reaching calls for assistance and a social media outreach second to none in its vision and skill.

--Fisher was invited only by very few churches to deliver his message to their congregations.

--His Gospel-centered, obviously Biblical platform was endorsed by very few churches as the only viable way forward for Christians in the gubernatorial race.

Now, child sacrifice continues, virtually unchallenged.

In what way would your church appear to an outside observer to be at war with the systematic, legalized murder of babies, rather than at peace?

"I hate, I reject your festivals, nor do I delight in your solemn assemblies. Take away from Me the noise of your songs; I will not even listen to the sound of your harps. But let justice roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream" (Amos 5:21-24).

Hear the words God spoke through the prophet Amos.

God hates and rejects your solemn assemblies, for you had the chance to establish righteousness, and you didn't even try.

Every child murdered by abortion is your neighbor, created in the image of your God.

You are commanded to love and rescue them when oppressed and being taken away to slaughter (Proverbs 24:10-12, 31:8-9; Matthew 22:36-40) and to bring the Word of God into conflict with the culture of death and to be salt and light in this world (Matthew 5). God pronounces woe and judgment on those who enact unrighteous decrees to deprive the needy of justice (Psalm 82; Isaiah 10).

“To one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.” --James 4:17

YOU AND YOUR CHURCH MUST REPENT

Mick Cornett and Kevin Stitt need the witness of Christians, to know that we will accept nothing less than immediate and total abolition of abortion on Day One of their term as governor, and that if they will not execute justice, they are perpetuating a Holocaust and stand guilty before Almighty God.
